DJ ZAY a.k.a. D. Isaiah Starling, became obsessed with music at a young age, simply from hanging with his brother who gave him his first cassette tapes. Along with his older brother, his dad influenced his knowledge of music, where he found his dad's old turntables in the basement with over a 1,000+ vinyl records. With his love of vinyl, DJ Zay was exposed to many different experiences and styles in music through church choir, jazz percussion and the drumline.

Having relocated from Connecticut to Nebraska, his passion developed for listening to music and the concept of what people wanted to hear. While in High School, Omaha Central, DJ Zay became enamored with the craft, art and skill of DJing. As his passion grew and peers took notice, his classmates started to rely on his music selections, which is now loved across the nation. The response created from the public created the DJ Zay brand, which was the beginning of banquets, weddings, private events, and house parties.

By age 19, DJ Zay began to study the criteria of a legendary DJ, studying influential DJ's such as DJ P Minor, DJ Mister Soul, DJ Jazzy Jeff, Grandmaster Flash, Jam Pony Express, DJ Kid Capri, Doug E. Fresh and DJ Kool Herc. Relocating to Florida after high school, where he obtained dual-residency between Orlando and Tampa, helped DJ Zay expand to a broader base of fans to reach international status in Bahamas, Jamaica, Amsterdam along with Orlando, New York, New Orleans, Alabama, Atlanta and California with many more cities.
